

Software Logistics has been chosen by a major government department to provide CD-ROM replication and distribution services, the contract will require the replication of over 1M CD-ROMs annually.